Foreword

Another link in the chain of Mount Saint Joseph History has been cast; the Class of '42 has had its day. Through the pages of this fourth Mount publication, we have attempted to immortalize on the tablets of time the happenings in our class history which we cherish so dearly.

If, in the course of future years, our 1942 annual awakens in one heart tender memories of the days lived together at our beloved Alma Mater, our efforts will not have been in vain.

*"On earth's battlefield, never a vantage we'll yield,
As on to victory we proudly advance."*

"We're an army of youth Flying the standard of truth."

ST. JOSEPH, OUR PATRON

Our Boys

Watch o'er our boys, dear St. Joseph,
In the air, on the land and on the sea,
Bring them safely home, dear St. Joseph,
To America, the Land of the Free.

For their God and their country, they are fighting
With might and main, for the right;
Guard them, St. Joseph—keep them
Pure and good in God's holy sight.

JOSEPH JEROME WELCH

"Long may our land be bright
With Freedom's holy light."

Dedication

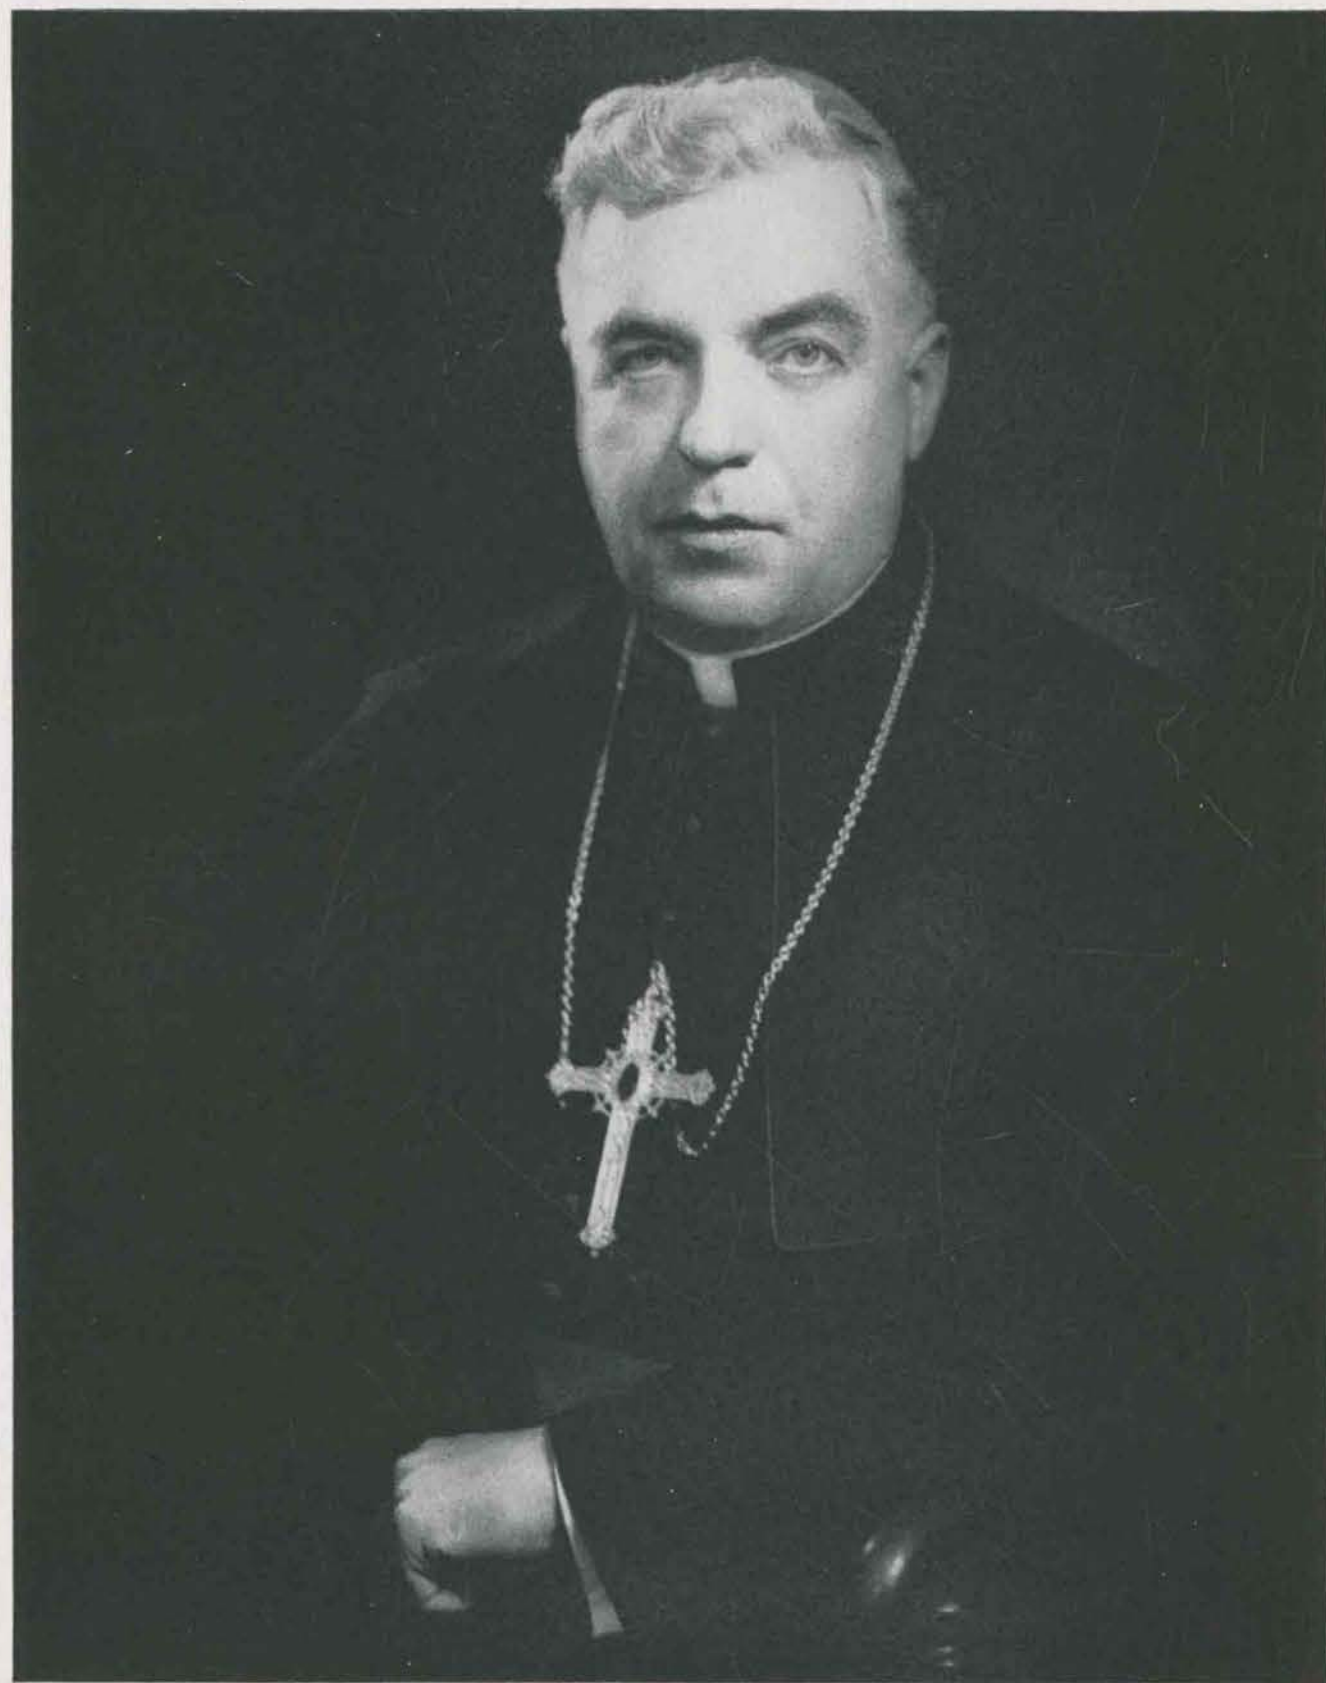

To former Mount Saint Joseph students who are now in the service of our beloved country, we proudly and devotedly dedicate our 1942 yearbook. As we realize that these men and women are sacrificing everything to uphold the Christian American ideals taught us at the Academy, this dedication of our annual is but a trivial reminder of our deep appreciation of their generosity and courage. Theirs is the true spirit of sacrifice—the willingness to risk their lives for the welfare of their countrymen.

"Greater love than this no man hath . . . !"

"Give peace, O Lord, in our day,
Protect our boys, we pray!"

To Our Spiritual Guides

We are grateful to our pastors and to their assistants for the unselfish devotion they have manifested toward us through their instruction in Religion classes, their advice in individual spiritual guidance, and their interest in all our activities.

To them we pledge devoted hearts, inspired minds, and constant efforts to fulfill their trust in us.

REVEREND L. ALBERT VEZINA

REVEREND JOHN M. KENNEDY

Four years of happy association with our Chaplain, Father Connor, have endeared him to every member of the Class of 1942. We shall always have pleasant recollections of our contacts with him as confessor, adviser, and friend.

Kindly interested in the various phases of our school life, Father has, by precept and example, sought through this interest, to draw us closer to God, and to teach us to seek His interests first in our daily lives.

REVEREND THOMAS H. CONNOR

"From every side, with eager stride
We form in the lines of victory."

Grateful Memories

On leaving our beloved Mt. St. Joseph Academy, as we pause to reminisce upon the joys and benefits of our years spent at M. S. J., we realize that we owe deep appreciation to the Sisters of St. Joseph, who have generously labored to impart to us a thorough scholastic education, as well as a sound religious training, that will be our guiding light on the journey to eternal life.

At this time we offer our tribute of thanks to Reverend Mother M. Josephine for her kindly interest toward us, to St. M. Regis our Principal, to our Sister Teachers, to Mr. Erickson, Mr. Baldwin, and Mr. Moore.

"MAY DAY" AT THE MOUNT

Our Chapel

Mt. St. Joseph pupils are fortunate in having a school chapel fittingly situated in the center of the Academy. The student body cherishes the privilege that is theirs of offering daily with the priest the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, to make visits to the Blessed Sacrament, and to receive the Master's blessing at Benediction on various occasions.

Each of us will, through the years, have sacred memories of First Friday Devotions, Annual Retreat, May Day Dedication, St. Joseph Day Mass, Class Night Benediction, and Graduation Day Mass offered in the chapel. It will be a pleasure to us in the days to come to assist at the annual Alumni May Day Masses and to recall "chapel memories" of our school days.

President's Address

ELEANOR LEVANGIE

We have assembled here this evening with a spirit of pride and pleasure. We feel proud because we have reached the termination of a Catholic high school education. We are especially happy to have the opportunity to share this memorable occasion with so many of our dearest friends and relatives. It is my privilege, in behalf of the Class of '42, to welcome you to our Class Night Exercises.

When we recall the years which have gone before, we find imprinted in our hearts, undying memories of those devoted benefactors who have been ever helpful, ever faithful to us each step of our way. To our pastors and priests who have been our spiritual leaders and helpers, we express our deepest gratitude. To our teachers, the understanding counselors who have unselfishly devoted their time and efforts to the betterment of each and every student, we extend our sincere appreciation. Finally, we owe our greatest debt of gratitude to the loving parents whose love and devotion knew no bounds—whose encouragement and interest have been indispensable to our happiness and success.

Although ominous clouds of war may threaten our freedom, we face the future with courage and determination. Finding protection and consolation under the mantle of the Sacred Heart, equipped with a Catholic education and inspired with burning zeal to do right, we are prepared to enter upon our new way of life.

Class Song

Words: EILEEN RODERER

I

Dear Classmates all, we sing our last refrain,
A last refrain, in Alma Mater's praise;
And ever shall our hearts recall the days,
The hours spent at dear old M. S. J.

CHORUS

From a sheltered harbor,
We'll sail on Life's broad sea;
And brave the stormy weather
Or smile on a sunny lee;
May Heaven's Queen, "Our Mother,"
E'er chart our course straight through,
And some day gladly welcome
The Class of Forty-Two.

II

Oh, oft we'll think of happy days we've known,
Of teachers dear, whose interest never failed;
Of lessons learned, that raised our hearts to God;
Oh happy hours, alas! now past and gone.

Class Gift

It has been the custom of the graduating class at Mt. St. Joseph, as in many schools, to present a gift to the academy, as a token of gratitude for the many benefits enjoyed by the class during its four years of high school.

In our donation this year, we have departed from the usual custom of presentation. Since we are dedicating the 1942 Mount to former M. S. J. students who are now in the service of our country, the Class of '42 has remembered these students in a spiritual manner, also. Our Class Gift was presented to them Monday morning, when we attended High Mass which was offered, at our request, for their spiritual and temporal welfare.

Class History

For three long years we had been waiting for the day when we would be Seniors of Mt. St. Joseph Academy. At last our wish was fulfilled! In September 1941, we began to realize what so-called senior dignity and prestige really meant. Perhaps we were a little conceited at first, but we have conquered that self esteem long since!

Our first important act was to elect the following class officers: Eleanor LeVangie, president; Louis Fox, vice-president; Alice Coyle, secretary and Gerald LeFrancois, treasurer. For Senior Council we chose Joseph J. Welch, Florence Cotrupi, Hugh Hanrahan, Amelia Socinski, Robert Leahy, Charles McGinnis, Elizabeth Connell, Joseph B. Welch, and Francis Flood.

Next in order was the election of Athletic Association representatives. The ballot showed John Daley, president; Elizabeth Connell, vice-president, Joseph B. Welch, treasurer and Josephine Esposito, secretary. Football now claimed our attention. How proud we were of our team! The boys came through with Marble Valley League Championship for the third consecutive year, thereby gaining permanent possession of the League trophy.

Our journalistic efforts began to bud forth at this time, as we spent many busy hours on "The Clarion," our school paper. Under the co-editorship of Mary Canty and Eleanor LeVangie, and the splendid business managing of Jeanne Higgins, it has again won recognition from the National Convention at Columbia University and from the Scholastic Press Association. Several of the staff members attended the annual press conference held in Burlington.

The outstanding event of the school year, our annual retreat, was conducted by Reverend Peter J. Dolin, S.J. These three days of spiritual exercises will always be cherished by the class. Following this period of serious thought, came the Freshman Reception—an evening of real fun at the expense of the "Freshies." In November, the Mt. St. Joseph Band presented an exceptional program of music to a capacity audience in the Rutland Armory. This concert was an outstanding achievement in the history of the band.

Later in the month, an ambitious group of Seniors from Rooms 4 and 6 undertook a penny sale for the purpose of raising a senior fund. Besides providing an enjoyable evening, the project netted a goodly sum for the class treasury. The Senior Play "Johnny Grows Up" was enthusiastically received by two appreciative audiences in St. Peter's Hall, February 11 and 12. From beginning to end, this exciting comedy was brim full of thrilling and humorous incidents.

Class History

With the coming of March, the Mount staff headed by Eleanor LeVangie as Editor-in-Chief and Jeanne Higgins as Business Manager began work on the '42 yearbook. During this month also our basketball team finished a most successful season. The boys won the runner-up berth in the Southern Vermont tourney, then traveled to Burlington where they took second honors again in the State Tournament. Positions on the All Tournament and All State Teams were earned by John Daley and John Hackett. Francis Margo won a place on the second team at both tourneys.

On April 8, many Seniors attended the third annual prom sponsored by the Juniors. During this month ten Seniors participated in the annual Prize Speaking Contest. Francis Flood, first prize winner, was the representative of Mt. St. Joseph Academy at the district competition at Rutland High School. The Senior Debating Team won the district debate at Middlebury, April 1, and participated in the state contest at Burlington, April 18. The annual procession in honor of the Blessed Virgin took place April 30.

Girls of the graduating class were guests of the Alumnae at a May Breakfast held at the Hotel Bardwell on the first Sunday of May. Reverend Charles Reardon, S.J., delivered the address on this occasion. Senior commercial pupils brought more honor to their Alma Mater, when they won the Tri-School Typing Contest, in which St. Michael's High School, Brattleboro, and Cathedral High School, Burlington, competed, May 22.

Six pupils of the Music Department presented their graduation concert in the Academy gymnasium June 3. Class Night was staged by the Class of '42 at the Strand theatre, Wednesday evening, June 10. Commencement exercises took place at the Armory Friday, June 12. His Excellency the Most Reverend Matthew F. Brady, D.D., presided at the graduation at which Reverend Robert F. Joyce was the guest speaker.

We are proud of the achievements which we have accomplished in our senior year, and we will always cherish the memories of them.

MARY CANTY

Class Prophecy

Last night I fell asleep reading "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," and I had a dream—but I did not dream of the princess nor of the seven funny men. In my dream I went to the magic mirror and spoke these words: "Magic mirror on the wall, Tell me of my classmates all" and the spirit in the mirror complied with my request, and told me in these words what all the members of the Class of Forty-Two will be doing ten years hence:

Robert Dow and Angelo Valente own a department store. Rowdy specializes in flashy socks and Angelo carries a large line of sweaters. This, however, is not their only line.

Marcella Rice and Barbara Watterlund are in partnership as song-writers. They have published their songs under the title, "Love Lyrics of Former Years." Charles McGinnis is a famous basketball coach at Stanford University. Duke got his start with the Christ the King team.

Two great orators produced at the Academy, Francis Flood and Joseph Anzalone are running on opposing ballots for county senator.

Charles Gallo and Lena Valenty are a famous dance team connected with the Arthur Murray Studios. And what have we here—Dick Paul turned out to be a radio comedian after all, using the same moth-eaten jokes that he sprang at the Academy a few years ago!

It seems that some of the class got together to form a band to help Dick along on his program. Arthur Bellmore is the old maestro, Barbara Reardon and Richard Mooney are the supporting hornblowers, and Mary Canty is at the piano. Their soloist is Marjorie Marcell. The effect produced by this outstanding broadcast is just too—excruciating!

Robert Leahy, Jerome Kelley and Robert Crowley head a nation-wide gas station chain, but—ah, me!—no gas!! Those two inseparables, Theresa Abatiell and Mary Altobell decided that the life of Riley was not the life for them, so they have retired from the outside world to their cabin in the mountains.

Fernand Bartlett was actually speechless, when the president appointed him official flag-raiser at the Capitol. That's odd—he always had an answer.

Rachel Audy and Frances Winship felt awfully sorry for M. S. J. students who couldn't get to school from Danby, so they operated a bus service from there every day.

There were so many girls in this class who wanted to become nurses. Let's see where some of them are: Ann Healy is a superintendent in a large city hospital. Margaret Daly and Katherine Ann Sullivan are hostesses for the C. R. P. air lines—the Clarendon, Rutland and Proctor route. Ruth Flynn and Barbara Ingalls also entered this profession and are now with the Army. Ellen O'Shea, Beatrice Greeno and Olga Ascoli found Rutland Hospital quite satisfactory to them, so they remained there after training days.

Every member of the staff was proud to contribute his share to this cherished remembrance of our high school days. We express appreciation to our faculty adviser, Sister Mary Jerome, for her encouragement and assistance, which was indispensable to the success of our yearbook.

Mt. St. Joseph Band

The Mount Saint Joseph band, under the supervision of Sr. M. Evangelist, has won state-wide recognition for its many splendid performances during the year. Led by drum major, Arthur Bellmore, signal major, Helen Stratton and majorettes, Mary Costello, Gladys Bolgioni, Marion Clifford and Regina Valenty, the band members are well known for their attractive appearance, as well as their musical talent.

Outstanding among the achievements of the group was the November concert, conducted by Edward Foster. This affair, the greatest in the history of the organization, was witnessed by a capacity audience at the Armory.

Other occasions on which the band performed were: football and basketball games, Southern Vermont Tournament, Governor's Day, Woodstock Memorial Day Celebration, Army Day, Schoolboy Patrol Convention, "I Am An American Day," and the May Procession.

Under the direction of Sr. Mary Evangelist, the orchestra has made a study of overture compositions, operatic selections, and classical and modern schools of music during the past year.

As usual, the orchestra members have always responded generously to the many demands made upon them to take part in school and social programs.

Senior play, June Concert, Class Night, Academy and Grammar School Graduations are among the various occasions on which the orchestra has furnished charming entertainment.

Mt. St. Joseph Glee Chorus

One of the principal activities at the Academy is the Mount Saint Joseph Glee Chorus, which assembled weekly for general practice under the direction of Sister Mary St. John. The Choruses have made a study of the Chant Masses, Orbis Factor and Cum Jubilo, which were sung on several occasions.

Chorales by Bach and compositions by modern and ultra-modern composers were also studied.

The mixed glee chorus furnished music for the school assemblies, several of which featured patriotic selections.

"Mary, sweet Queen of Peace,
To thee we raise our song;
Pray for our America,
Watch o'er our dear land."

"Let us all be grateful,
For America, land so fair."

Clarion

The May 8th issue of the Clarion marked the eighth year of publication of the Academy bi-weekly newspaper.

With Sister Agnes Marie as Faculty Adviser, Eleanor LeVangie and Mary Canty Co-Editors-in-Chief, and Jeanne Higgins, Business Manager, our journal has had a very successful year. The Clarion was awarded third place in the National Columbia School Press Association Contest, and also by the National Scholastic Press Association.

Eleanor LeVangie, Mary Canty, Eileen Roderer, Alice Coyle, Loretta Scanlon, and Jeanne Higgins represented the Clarion at the Vermont High School Editors' Conference held in October at the University of Vermont.

SENIOR PLAY

"Johnny Grows Up," a three-act comedy directed by Sister Mary Jerome, was presented by the senior class before two appreciative audiences in St. Peter's Hall. A matinee was staged February 11, and the evening performance was given February 12.

Depicting the joys and trials of the Stephens' family, an average American household, the story was amusing, heart-stirring, and exciting. Starring in the cast were: Betty Stephens (the oldest daughter), Elizabeth Connell; Gracie Stephens (the troublesome younger sister), Mary Altobell; Mother Stephens, Barbara Ingalls; Father Stephens, Wyman Graves; Johnny Stephens, Francis Flood; Doctor Bates (family physician), Fernand Bartlett; Roger McClain (Betty's friend), Francis Trombetta; Sister McClain (Roger's young sister), Fay Waterman; Ralph Johnson (Johnny's pal), Dominic Paul; and Mrs. Johnson (Ralph's mother), Eileen Roderer.

One-Act Plays

"Elmer," a comedy directed by Sister Mary Imelda, and "Things," a one-act play supervised by Sister Mary Edward, were presented by the juniors in November.

The cast of "Things" included Mildred LeGresley, Mary M. Creed, Esther Barrett, Marjorie Taylor, James Howley and Charles Prievie.

Members of the cast of "Elmer" were: Edward Clifford, Irene Hughes, Jean LeFrancois, Therese Magner, Dorothy Cannon, Sophie Dulski, Eleanor Traynor, George Ellwood, and Raymond Thrall. "Elmer" was the Academy's entry in the annual district one-act play contest in which Poultney, Wallingford, and North Bennington competed.

Prize Speaking Contest

Under the direction of Sister M. Annunciata, the annual prize speaking contest was held in the school gymnasium on April 16. Ten students participated in the competition, giving readings on dramatic, humorous, and oratorical subjects.

The winning selection was "I Am His Son," delivered by Francis Flood, who represented Mt. St. Joseph at the district contest at Rutland High School, April 21. Second prize was awarded to Eleanor LeVangie, and honorable mention was given to Barbara Reardon.

"We know war is not your game, Uncle Sam!
'Twas at peace you made your fame, Uncle Sam!"

Debating

The Senior Debating Team with Alice Coyle and Katherine Sullivan upholding the affirmative and Dominick Paul and Francis Flood, the negative, won first place in the district debate held at Middlebury, April 1. The club, coached by Sr. M. Jerome, thereby gained entrance into the State Debate at Burlington. Other schools represented at the district contest were Fair Haven and Middlebury.

The University of Vermont was the scene of the State Debate April 17 and 18. Contestants were: Mt. St. Joseph Academy, Montpelier, Windsor, Spaulding, Woodstock and Essex Junction.

At both meets the subject of debate was the national question: "Resolved—that every able bodied male citizen in the United States be required to have one year of full-time military training before reaching the present draft age."

The Junior Debating Club, under the direction of Sister Agnes Marie, contended in the Academy gymnasium April 24 with a team from St. Michael's High School of Brattleboro on the subject: "Resolved—that war munitions should be governmentally owned and operated."

Commercial Contest

In the annual Tri-School Typing Contest in which teams from the Academy, St. Michael's in Brattleboro, and Cathedral in Burlington competed, our commercial seniors emerged victoriously, winning possession of the coveted trophy for the ensuing year. Classmates and friends of the typists witnessed the tri-school meet, which took place in the school gymnasium, May 22.

Commercial seniors from the Academy who participated in the event were: Florence Cotrupi, Agnes Valenty, Teresa Abatiell, Rose Mangan, Mary Keefe, Virginia Marotte, Gloria Barrett, Margaret Notte and Marguerite Battles.

"God keep our boys, who are off to fight the foe,
Their country has called them, so bravely they go."

Junior Catholic Daughters

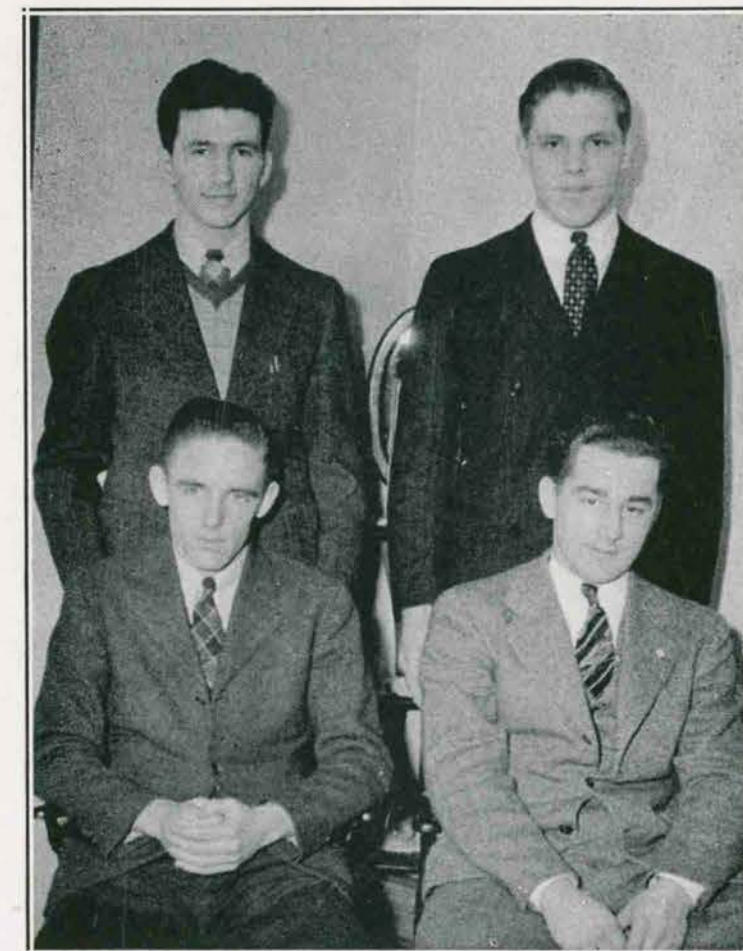

Many of the Academy girls are members of the Junior Catholic Daughters of America. The aim of this society is to develop personality and character through the harmonious combination of spiritual and social interests.

The standards of the Junior Catholic Daughters are "to love God, to serve others, and to live nobly." The initiation team, which is comprised of the court officers and the troop presidents has installed many new courts throughout the different sections of the state.

Junior Holy Name Society

The Junior Holy Name Society has completed another year of activity in St. Peter's Parish. As a junior auxiliary to the senior Holy Name Society, the youthful members try to realize the spiritual advantages attached to fidelity to the obligations required of their society.

Each month, as well as on special occasions, the boys receive Holy Communion in a body. Their particular phase of Catholic Action this year, under the direction of Reverend Father Miller, has been to aid Catholic Missions. Socials were held on various occasions for the purpose of procuring a Mission fund.

"Let foemen lurk, and laggards shirk,
We cast our fortunes with the Lord,
Mary's Son, 'till the world is won,
We have pledged You our loyal word."

St. Peter's Junior Sodality

The sodalists of Mount Saint Joseph Academy, under the direction of Sr. M. Francis, have done their part by prayer and active cooperation, not only to sanctify themselves, but to lead others to Christ, through Mary.

Regular meetings were held throughout the year with the following officers presiding: President, Florence Cotrupi; Vice-President, Carmela Caggige; Secretary, Jane Stebbins; Treasurer, Anita McGuire.

The financial returns from socials sponsored by the girls were used for charitable purposes.

Mission Crusade Unit

Although the Mission Crusade has always existed informally at the Academy, it was not until this year that the Unit was officially organized under the direction of the Reverend Father Miller. Officers chosen from the class of '42 were President, Jane Stebbins; Vice-President, Hugh Hanrahan; Secretary, Mary Agnes Leahy; Treasurer, Dominick Paul.

Six delegates attended the 12th National Catholic Students' Mission Crusade Convention which took place at Rochester, N. Y. last June. Representatives of Mt. St. Joseph at the conference were Jeanne Higgins, Mary Agnes Leahy, Jane Stebbins, Arthur Bellmore, Hugh Hanrahan, and Edward Foster.

Members of the Crusade Unit pray daily for the welfare of the missions, and have contributed a substantial fund for their financial aid. Socials for the benefit of foreign missions have been held during the year.

"Flag of the brave! thy folds shall fly,
The sign of hope and triumph high."

St. John Berchmans' Society

One of the most cherished privileges enjoyed by our senior boys is the honor of serving the priest at Holy Mass and at Benediction. The altar boys in the group pictured below have acted in this capacity during their grammar school days, and four years of high school.

They have taken part in the special ceremonies of Holy Hour, Holy Week Exercises, Christmas Masses and other functions of Church services.

The boys appreciate the training that they have received from Sister M. Imelda and Sister St. Michael.

Green Mountain Boys' State

Richard Mooney, Francis Trombetta, John Burke, Gerald Belden, John Canney, and Charles Gallo formed the M. S. J. unit at the 1941 Boys' State sponsored by the American Legion.

In addition to a daily recreational program, the boys enjoyed practical experience in actual problems of self-government, as it is in operation in Vermont. They were taught the theories of American government through the exercise of town, city, county, and State offices, as is organized under the plan of the Mythical State.

"Of peace we sing, under Christ the King,
Whose law is light, and life, and love."

Green Mountain Girls' State

The first annual session of Green Mountain Girls' State, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, was held at Vermont Junior College in Montpelier during the week of June 15-22, 1941. One hundred thirteen girls, representing forty-six towns and cities in Vermont, were given an opportunity to play a definite and integral part in the government of a mythical state.

Amelia Socinski, Frances Winship and Eleanor LeVangie were the delegates from Mt. St. Joseph. The girls spent a memorable week, taking an active interest in the daily program of citizenship, as well as participating in sports and other forms of recreation.

The Knights of Columbus Auditorium was the scene of the third annual Junior Prom on the evening of April 8. Approximately one hundred couples enjoyed the program of dancing with music furnished by a local eight-piece orchestra.

Members of the Junior Class who were in charge of arrangements were: Joan Cannon, Kenneth Walker, Helen Spine, Richard Reardon, Raymond Adams, Marion Loyzelle, Patricia McDonough, Mildred LeGresley, Francis Margo, and Joseph Nugent.

Athletic Association

The majority of Mt. St. Joseph students are members of the Athletic Association. This society has done much to promote an interest in athletics at the Academy, and to support the teams financially.

Frequently during the year pep rallies were staged in the school gymnasium with the following officers presiding: President, John Daley; Vice-President, Elizabeth Connell; Secretary, Josephine Esposito; Treasurer, Joseph B. Welch.

CHEERLEADERS

To Mr. Baldwin, our understanding teacher and competent coach, the Class of '42 express their devotion and sincere appreciation. His whole hearted interest in the welfare of each one of us has inspired us to nobler heights.

The Class of '42 will always cherish happy memories of their pleasant associations with Mr. Moore, both as classroom teacher, and as assistant coach. We feel that we have become better men and women through our contact with such a true and loyal friend.

Football

Despite all expectations, the Mounties copped the third consecutive League title by winning but one contest, and engaging in two tied battles.

Coach Al Baldwin put together a 1941 grid machine composed chiefly of talented, but inexperienced warriors, and although the combination produced a rugged forward wall to shield fleet-footed and accurate passing backfielders, their inexperience was a check on the '41 campaign.

Such reliable men as Lou Fox, Jack Daley, Lou Miglorie and Joe Caligiure formed a sturdy line, while Spoon, McGinnis, Canney, Lemmo, and Murray gave the Mounties a good backfield.

The Wave dropped a close 12-6 decision to St. Mary's at St. Albans, and on the next Saturday they lined up against Rutland's Red Raiders, who stormed St. Peter's field for another city series clash. The course of the battle was an exact facsimile of numerous previous Raider-Acad scraps—the Mounties holding the Redmen on even terms for the first half, but then giving away under a Raider uprising in the second half.

The '41 M. S. J. outfit inaugurated night football at the Academy, playing Bennington to a scoreless tie at St. Peter's field under the lights, and dropping a 25-6 decision at Bellows Falls in a night session.

Much of the '42 talent will be back in the M. S. J. fold next year and with a year's seasoning they bid to do great things in 1942.

Varsity Basketball

For class, finesse, and all-around brilliant court technique, the basketball machine representing the Academy team in 1941-1942 was second to none in the state. Coach Al Baldwin, together with Assistant Coach Joe Moore, who had a hand in the basketball activities of the M. S. J. court fighters from grammar grades to varsity competition, developed the combination of Hackett, Courcelle, Walker, Daley, and Margo into a smooth functioning outfit.

As top notchers Springfield and M. S. J. blasted through the preliminary and semi-finals of the Southern Vermont Tournament to fight it out for first honors in the final round, in which Springfield copped a 36-15 decision. Two weeks later, both clubs met in the finals at Burlington to battle for State honors. At haltime in the final battle the Acads enjoyed a 5-point lead, but the inspired play of Davis, Springfield forward, brought Springfield from behind to give the Cosmos the 1942 State Championship.

Hackett and Daley were named on both all-tournament teams, and Margo made the second team in both selections.

Jayvee Basketball

The Junior Varsity Basketball season of 1941-42, although not as successful as the 1940-41 season was creditable enough in so far as games won and lost were concerned.

Under the mentorship of Coach Moore, the team's season record was nine wins and five losses. Three of the losses sustained were by the margin of one point. The most disappointing part of the whole campaign was the loss of the City Championship to Rutland. The "Little Raiders" twice defeated the Mounties, once by the disastrous score of 39-15. The highlight of the season was evidenced at Windsor, when the Jayvees came from behind to defeat the highly rated "Yellow Jackets."

Captain Joe Caliguire played the most consistent ball, and his leadership of the team throughout the season was unerring. The high point man of the team was Louis Rizzico, who was followed closely by Bill Lovett.

Girls' Basketball

Another successful girls' basketball season came to a close with the college-sophomores coming out on top in the 1942 championship tilt. Both the college-sophomores and the commercial-juniors plowed their way through the preliminary rounds to clash in an exciting contest. Neither of the teams could gain a comfortable lead during the first half, being matched point for point.

It was in the third quarter that the juniors chalked up several tallies. At this point Shirley O'Neil dropped four counters through the hoop to give the sophomores a slight lead. Jeanne LeFrancois, high scorer for the juniors, came through with another marker, but was matched by the high-scoring Mary Costello in the closing seconds of the fray to clinch the game for the sophomores.

Varsity Baseball

Under the capable leadership of Coach Al Baldwin, Mount Saint Joseph has produced one of the finest baseball teams in the state. The Academites have to date (May 30) a total of 14 wins against 2 set-backs, and have already captured the Triangular League Championship. After defeating Rutland twice in basketball, the Green Wave also won four diamond contests from the Raiders.

The infield was composed of Walker, Hackett, Murray and Lemmo, with a greater portion of the backstopping by Caligiure, aided by Sapinski. In the outfield were Capt. McGinnis, Dolphin and LeFrancois who worked behind a pitching staff made up of Spoon, Smith, Fagan, LeFrancois, Menduni and Pokrywka.

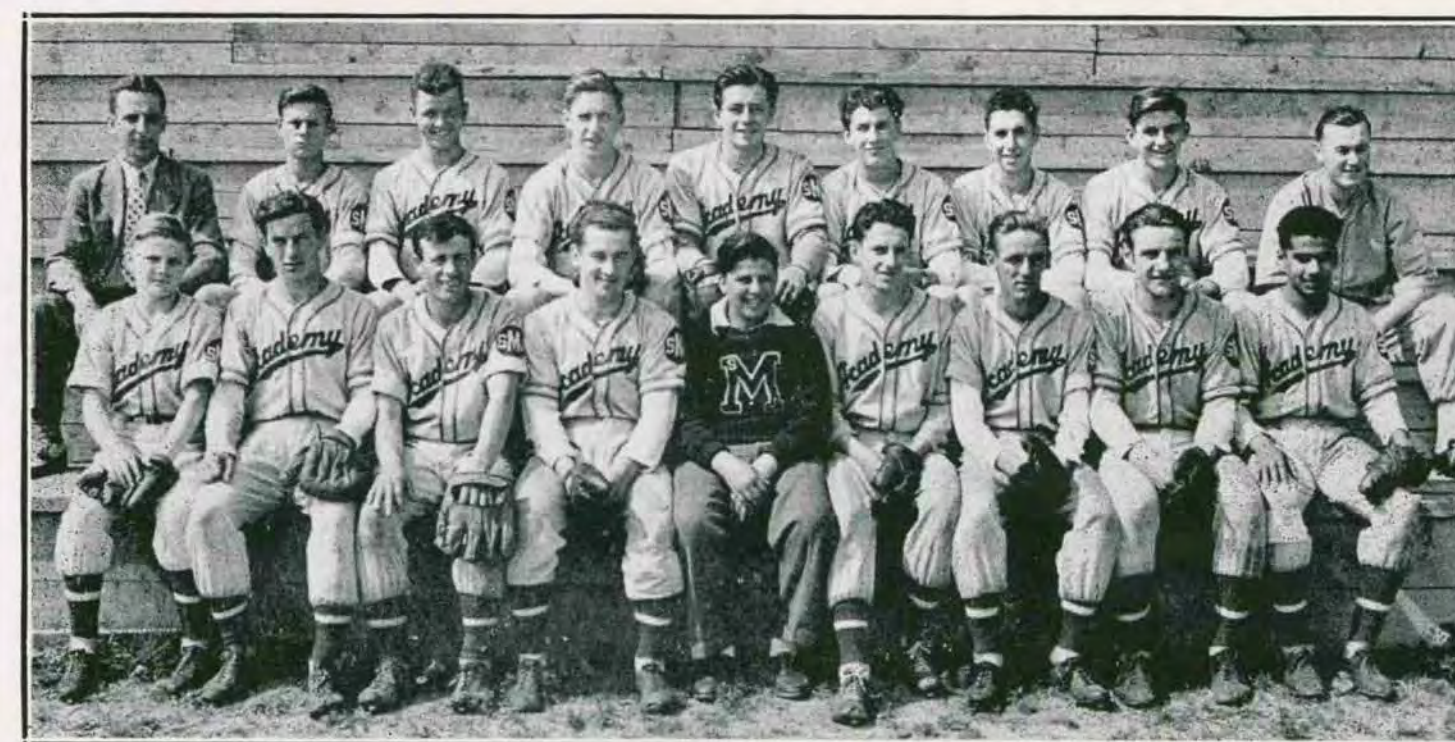

As a result of constant practice under the guidance of Coaches Baldwin and Moore, good pitching, hard hitting, and few errors were the main factors contributing to the success of the 1942 season.

To Our Readers

We, the Class of 1942, express our sincere appreciation to all who have helped us financially by their advertisements in the Mount. It is our wish that the readers of the 1942 annual will patronize these generous benefactors.
